JUSTICE OF THE PEACE

HARRIS COUNTY, TEXAS

PRECINCT 1, PLACE 1

PLAINTIFF’S EMERGENCY MOTION FOR CLARIFICATION OF ORDER OF DISQUALIFICATION

Plaintiff hereby submits its Emergency Motion for Clarification of this Court’s Order of Disqualification dated October 29, 2024, and would show the Court as follows¹:

Introduction

Plaintiff respectfully requests immediate clarification of this Honorable Court’s October 29, 2024, Order of Disqualification (the “DQ Order”) (signed by the Honorable Josefina M. Rendón), which disqualified the Jackson Walker law firm (“Jackson Walker”) as well as “co-counsel.” Specifically, Defendant Jetall Companies, Inc. and other entities affiliated with Ali Choudhri (Defendant’s principal) are now endeavoring to manipulate the DQ Order’s language to argue that it disqualifies the law firm of Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman, LLP (“Pillsbury”) from representing other entities, in other matters, pending in other courts, in other jurisdictions, involving other parties. As this Honorable Court well knows, that was not the relief sought by Defendant in its October 29, 2024, Motion to Dismiss Opposing Counsel Due to Conflict of Interest (the “DQ Motion”), nor was that the relief ordered in the DQ Order, and therefore a clarification must immediately issue to prevent further abuse.

I. Procedural History

1. On October 29, 2024, Defendant Jetall filed the DQ Motion. The DQ Motion specifically sought disqualification of Jackson Walker, and Jackson Walker, only.

MOTION TO DISMISS OPPOSING COUNSEL DUE TO CONFLICT OF INTEREST

To the Honorable Judge of the Justice of the Peace Court:

INTRODUCTION

JETALL COMPANIES, INC. (“Defendant”) files this Motion to Dismiss Opposing Counsel, Jackson Walker LLP, and any attorney from Jackson Walker LLP from representing Houston 2425 Galleria, LLC in this matter due to a conflict of interest.

The DQ Motion was not served on Pillsbury, which never appeared as counsel for Plaintiff in this case (i.e. in the eviction proceeding). Indeed, Pillsbury is not included on the certificate of service attached to the Motion, nor does it appear on the Automated Certificate of Service created by the Court’s e-filing system. After hearing argument and taking evidence, this Court entered the DQ Order, which disqualified Jackson Walker from representing Houston 2425 Galleria LLC (“Plaintiff” or “New Owner”) in this lawsuit against Jetall Companies, Inc. (“Jetall”, “Defendant” or “Tenant”).

2. The DQ Order, however, unlike the Motion itself, states that “Jackson Walker, its attorneys and its [unidentified] co-counsel, are Disqualified to litigate or have any role in the present case, or the representation of any party in this case or the matters and issues relating thereto.” The DQ Order is in the same form as a proposed order Jetall filed in support of its DQ Motion to disqualify Jackson Walker. However, the proposed order was not submitted with the DQ Motion, but rather was only submitted at the end of the day, after the Court ruled from the bench that Jackson Walker (and Jackson Walker, alone) would be disqualified from representing Plaintiff in this eviction proceeding.

3. Now, Jetall is attempting to use the language “co-counsel” and “or the matters and issues relating thereto,” found in the DQ Order, to argue that this Court disqualified Pillsbury from representing National Bank of Kuwait (“NBK”) (who was not a party to this eviction proceeding), in other matters, in other courts, in other jurisdictions, involving other parties—including in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas (the “U.S. District Court”) matter styled as 2425 WL, LLC, Appellant, v. National Bank of Kuwait, S.A.K.P, New York Branch; Christopher Murray, Chapter 11 Trustee, Civil Action No. 4:24-cv-02590 (the “Confirmation Appeal”) and the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas (the “Bankruptcy Court”) matter styled as In re Galleria 2425 Owner, LLC, Case No. 23-34815 (JPN) (the “Bankruptcy Case”).

4. Accordingly, Plaintiff now comes to this Court to seek immediate clarification of the DQ Order and respectfully requests that an emergency hearing before Judge Josefina Rendón be held on an expedited basis. Plaintiff requests that this Court enter an Amended Order clarifying that the DQ Order is limited to the disqualification of Jackson Walker and its attorneys in this eviction proceeding, and specifically, that it does not include a ruling that Pillsbury is disqualified in any way from representing the Plaintiff or its affiliates herein or in any other matters.

II. Relevant Facts

5. Pillsbury has been engaged as counsel for NBK for the past several years in connection with a loan NBK made to Galleria 2425 Owner, LLC (the “Borrower” or “Prior Owner”). Borrower formerly owned the property located at 2425 West Loop South (the “Property”) in Houston in which Jetall was a tenant. Borrower and Jetall are under the ultimate common ownership and control of Ali Choudhri. While Pillsbury has represented NBK in various proceedings, it never appeared in this matter.

See Tex.R.Civ.P. 507.1.

6. Borrower is currently a debtor in the Bankruptcy Case. Pillsbury is counsel of record for NBK in the Bankruptcy Case. On July 8, 2024, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order (the “Sale Order”) that, as the Court knows: (1) provided for a sale of the Property “free and clear of all liens, claims, encumbrances, and other interests,” except as agreed by the purchaser, but (2) also required that parties in possession of an interest in property immediately surrender that interest to the purchaser after the sale. See Sale Order attached as Exhibit A

7. As the Court is aware, Plaintiff, as the new owner of the Property, commenced an action in this Court to evict Jetall from the Property, and on November 12, 2024, the Court entered an Order dismissing Plaintiff’s action for lack of jurisdiction. NBK, for itself and for the benefit of Plaintiff, then filed an Emergency Motion to Enforce the Sale Order in the Bankruptcy Court, attached as Exhibit B (the “Motion to Enforce”). The Bankruptcy Court granted emergency consideration of the Motion to Enforce, set a hearing for November 21, 2024, and required any responses to be filed by 5:00 p.m. on November 20, 2024.

8. Shortly after 5:00 p.m. on November 20th, Jetall filed its response to the Motion to Enforce in which, among other things, it argues that the DQ Order issued by this Honorable Court (which Pillsbury had not previously seen) not only disqualifies Jackson Walker from appearing in this case, but also somehow disqualifies Pillsbury from representing Plaintiff and NBK in the Bankruptcy Court.

9. Defendant made this argument to the Bankruptcy Court, notwithstanding the fact that, as this Court is aware, Defendant only sought to disqualify Jackson Walker as Plaintiff’s counsel in the eviction proceeding before this Court. The DQ Motion only requested that the Court “disqualify Jackson Walker, LLP and any attorney from Jackson Walker LLP from further representation of Houston 2425 Galleria, LLC in this case.” While the DQ Motion also uses the term “opposing counsel” throughout, the DQ Motion limits that term to “Jackson Walker LLP, and any attorney from Jackson Walker representing Houston 2425 Galleria, LLC.” Nowhere in the DQ Motion does Jetall identify or even mention Pillsbury (a law firm which, due to the Bankruptcy Case, is well known to Mr. Choudhri and Jetall), much less request that Pillsbury also be disqualified as Jackson Walker’s “co-counsel.”

Defendant Jetall’s argument that the DQ Order disqualifies Pillsbury is wholly without merit and is an intentional misrepresentation of the relief awarded.

10. It is clear, from a review of the relevant timeline, that Jetall’s arguments that the DQ Order applies to Pillsbury are entirely without merit. First, the DQ Motion, which was filed at 8:39 a.m. on October 29, 2024, was not served on Pillsbury.² This is clear from both the DQ Motion’s Certificate of Service, which was signed by Defendant’s counsel, J. Marcus Hill, and the automated Certificate of eService, which confirm that Pillsbury was not served.

11. Second, as noted above, the DQ Motion never mentions Pillsbury.

12. Third, Jetall’s arguments during the October 29, 2024, hearing on the DQ Motion, and the testimony of its principal, Ali Choudhri, never mentioned Pillsbury, even though Pillsbury attorneys, known to Jetall and its counsel, were present in the courtroom. Instead, both the DQ Motion and Mr. Choudhri’s testimony were focused exclusively on Jackson Walker’s alleged conflict.

² Prior to the commencement of the trial of Plaintiff’s petition for eviction, Jetall’s counsel knew that Pillsbury attorneys were present at the hearing. In fact, Jetall’s counsel sought to have Rule 408 settlement discussions with Pillsbury. These attempted settlement discussions establish that Jetall and its counsel never considered or maintained that Pillsbury had any conflict of interest or should be disqualified. After settlement discussions were attempted, the

13. At the conclusion of the hearing on October 29, 2024, this Court orally announced its ruling finding that the Jackson Walker and its attorneys should be disqualified based upon their apparent prior representation of Jetall, and this Court then reset the eviction trial to November 12, 2024, so that Plaintiff could retain new counsel (to the extent Pillsbury was “co-counsel,” trial certainly could have ensued that day, notwithstanding the Jackson Walker conflict).

14. Unbeknownst to Pillsbury, Jetall submitted a form of a proposed Order of Disqualification, which was filed after the conclusion of the hearing at 4:05 p.m. on October 29, 2024. Like Jetall’s Motion, the proposed Order of Disqualification was only served on Jackson Walker. It was not served via electronic service or any other method whatsoever to Pillsbury.

15. Notably, while the proposed order was signed by Jetall’s counsel, it was not signed by Jackson Walker, despite having a signature line for such counsel.

16. The proposed Order of Disqualification included relief not sought by Jetall in the DQ Motion. Specifically, the proposed order sought to disqualify not only Jackson Walker, LLP and its attorneys but also “its co-counsel.” The Court signed the proposed Order of Disqualification submitted by Jetall on October 29, 2024. Pillsbury was not served with either the proposed order or the DQ Order entered by the Court.

17. After entry of the DQ Order, Jetall’s counsel again contacted Pillsbury on several occasions inviting settlement discussions, never once suggesting that Pillsbury had been disqualified.

18. On November 12, 2024, the eviction trial was scheduled to proceed, with Plaintiffs’ new counsel, Jared Levinthal and Robert Wilkins of Lightfoot, Franklin and White, trial on Plaintiff’s petition for eviction was called by the Court. The matter was to be conducted as a bench trial based upon consent of all parties.

LLC (collectively “Lightfoot”) having made their appearance. See Notice of Appearance attached as Exhibit C; Notice of Trial Setting attached as Exhibit D. However, before trial began, Jetall’s counsel argued that a potential conflict of interest existed with the Lightfoot law firm. The Court heard oral arguments from counsel, but it ultimately ruled that the Lightfoot law firm should not be disqualified. The same Pillsbury attorneys were again present at this hearing. Despite the DQ Order having been entered more than two weeks prior, at no time did Jetall ever mention that it believed Pillsbury had been disqualified pursuant to the DQ Order. Instead, the eviction bench trial proceeded before this Court without any objection whatsoever, and in fact, Mr. Andrew Troop from Pillsbury was even called as a witness (without any objection from Jetall or any suggestion by Jetall that Pillsbury had been disqualified in any way from any representation) to offer a factual summary of the ongoing bankruptcy proceedings.

19. As stated, following this Court’s dismissal of Plaintiff’s Petition for Eviction for lack of jurisdiction, on Monday, November 18, 2024, the Motion to Enforce was filed. It was only in Jetall’s response to the Motion to Enforce that Jetall, for the first time, argued that the DQ Order disqualified Pillsbury.³ Indeed, Jetall’s counsel initiated several communications with Pillsbury attorneys between November 18 and November 20 relating to the Motion to Enforce but failed to raise this alleged disqualification. See email communications with Marc Hill and Carl Cecere attached as Exhibits E, F, and G.

20. Although the DQ Order does not mention Pillsbury, Jetall and its affiliates are attempting to use it in other courts, and in particular in other disputes where Jetall is not a party. For example, counsel for another Choudhri entity raised the DQ Order as an issue just hours before a hearing on a motion to dismiss that entity's Appeal before the U.S. District Court where neither the Plaintiff nor Jetall are parties.

21. Plaintiff is returning to this Court to request a clarification of the DQ Order and prevent its continued misuse.

III. Argument and Authorities

22. Because Jetall never moved to disqualify Pillsbury, never mentioned Pillsbury at the hearing on the DQ Motion, or otherwise presented any evidence with respect to a conflict involving Pillsbury, as a matter of law, there was never any basis to disqualify Pillsbury.

There are simply no legitimate grounds for disqualification of Pillsbury

23. "A party seeking disqualification must first demonstrate that there were substantive conversations between disqualified counsel and co-counsel, joint preparation for trial by those counsel, or the apparent receipt by co-counsel of confidential information." In re Am. Home Products Corp., 985 S.W.2d 68, 81 (Tex. 1998); Ledwig v. Cuprum S.A., No. SA-03-CA-542-RF, 2004 WL 573650, at *3 (W.D. Tex. Jan. 28, 2004). Thus, "[u]nless disqualified counsel has disclosed privileged information to co-counsel, disqualification of co-counsel is not proper, and a presumption of disclosure is inappropriate." Vinewood Capital, LLC v. Sheppard Mullin Richter & Hampton, LLP, 735 F. Supp. 2d 503, 524 (N.D. Tex. 2010) (citing Brennan's, Inc. v. Brennan's Restaurants, Inc., 590 F.2d 168, 174 (5th Cir.1979)). It is therefore "[o]nly after the party seeking disqualification has 'first demonstrate[d] that there were substantive conversations between disqualified counsel and co-counsel, joint preparation for trial by those counsel, or the apparent receipt by co-counsel of confidential information' does the burden shift to co-counsel to prove non-disclosure." Vinewood Capital, LLC, 735 F. Supp. 2d at 524 (emphasis added).

24. Again, Jetall never moved to disqualify Pillsbury and, indeed, never mentioned Pillsbury in its DQ Motion. Moreover, it did not present any evidence rebutting the presumption that no confidential information possessed by Jackson Walker (if any) was exchanged with Pillsbury. In addition, Pillsbury was not Jackson Walker's co-counsel. It never entered an appearance as Plaintiff's counsel before or after Jackson Walker's disqualification. Finally, as the Court may recall, when Mr. Troop addressed the Court on November 12th, he made clear that he represented NBK in the Bankruptcy Court and not the Plaintiff in this case. No one challenged Mr. Troop's statement or suggested that Pillsbury—pursuant to this Court's DQ Order—had been disqualified from representing NBK in the Bankruptcy Case.

Even if grounds exist for disqualification of Pillsbury (and they do not) Jetall has waived any conflict

25. Further, through its conduct both before and after the disqualification of Jackson Walker, Jetall has waived any argument that Pillsbury has a conflict or should be disqualified in this matter or any other matter. “[A] party who does not file a motion to disqualify opposing counsel in a timely manner waives the complaint.” Massey v. Columbus State Bank, 35 S.W.3d 697, 700 (Tex.App.—Houston [1st Dist.] 2000, pet. denied) citing In re Epic Holdings, Inc., 985 S.W.2d 41, 52 (Tex. 1998) (original proceeding); see also In the Interest of A.M., 604 S.W.3d 192, 200 (Tex.App.—Amarillo 2020, pet. denied)(“Carol did not file a motion to disqualify Daniel’s counsel prior to or at the time of trial. Rather, she waited . . . [b]y failing to timely file a motion to disqualify, Carol waived her complaint” citing Vaughan v. Walther, 875 S.W.2d 690, 690 (Tex. 1994)(per curiam)(a party who fails to file its motion to disqualify opposing counsel in a timely manner waives the complaint).” Again, Jetall never moved to disqualify Pillsbury, never presented any evidence to support the disqualification of Pillsbury, and interacted directly with Pillsbury repeatedly without ever mentioning a conflict. Instead, it was not until after three weeks had elapsed did Jetall and its commonly controlled Choudhri affiliates seek to use the DQ Order as an improper basis to delay the proceedings in the Bankruptcy Court.

26. In this regard, the U.S. District Court's response to the last-minute attempt by 2425 WL, LLC to assert that this Court's order disqualifies Pillsbury is instructive. The U.S. District Court found that 2425 WL, LLC waived any argument that Pillsbury was disqualified for the purposes of the hearing on November 21, 2024, because it had the DQ Order for nearly three weeks and did not move specifically to disqualify Pillsbury.

27. Nonetheless, in the event that this Court considers Pillsbury to be Jackson Walker's "co-counsel", Plaintiff respectfully moves this Court to reconsider its decision and afford it a full opportunity to respond to these baseless claims of conflict as to Pillsbury.

IT HEREBY IS FOUND AND DETERMINED THAT:

A. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7052. The findings and conclusions set forth herein constitute the Court's findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7052 made applicable to this proceeding pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9014. To the extent any of the following findings of fact constitute conclusions of law, they are adopted as such. To the extent any of the following conclusions of law constitute findings of fact, they are adopted as such. The Court's findings shall also include any oral findings of fact and conclusions of law made by the Court during or at the conclusion of the Sale Hearing.

B. Jurisdiction and Venue. This Court has jurisdiction over the Motion, the Sale Transaction, and over the property of the Debtor's bankruptcy estate, including the Purchased Assets, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157(a)-(b) and 1334(b), and the General Order 2012-6 of the U.S. District Court for Southern District of Texas. This matter is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409. The statutory and other legal predicates for the relief sought in the Motion and granted herein include sections 105, 362, 363, and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 6004, 6006, 9008, and 9014.

C. Final Order. This Sale Order constitutes a final order within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 158(a). The Trustee has demonstrated compelling circumstances and a good, sufficient, and sound business purpose and justification for the immediate approval and consummation of the Sale Transaction as contemplated by the Asset Purchase Agreement. In the absence of a stay pending appeal, the Buyer, being a good faith purchaser under section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code, may close the sale contemplated by the Asset Purchase Agreement at any time after entry of this Sale Order, subject to the provisions of the Asset Purchase Agreement, and shall not be subject to any applicable stay, including any stay under Bankruptcy Rules 6004(h) and 6006(d).

D. Notice and Opportunity to Object. As evidenced by the certificates of service on file with the Court, due, proper, timely, adequate, and sufficient notice and a reasonable opportunity to object or be heard with respect to the Motion, the Sale Hearing, the Sale Transaction, the Asset Purchase Agreement, the potential assumption and assignment of the Potential Assigned Contracts (as defined below) and proposed Cure Amounts, and the identification or means of identification of the particular Designated Assigned Contracts (as defined below) has been provided in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Bid Procedures Order.

E. Property of Estate. The Purchased Assets to be sold and assigned by the Trustee to the Buyer pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement are property of the Debtor's estate and title thereto is vested in the Debtor's estate.

F. Marketing Process. (i) The Trustee and his advisors engaged in a marketing and sale process pursuant to the Bid Procedures Order and the Bid Procedures that was sufficient under the circumstances; (ii) the Trustee and his advisors conducted a fair and open sale process; (iii) the sale process and the Bid Procedures were non-collusive and duly noticed and provided a full, fair and reasonable opportunity for any entity to make an offer to purchase the Purchased Assets; and (iv) the process conducted by the Trustee pursuant to the Bid Procedures Order and the Bid Procedures was reasonably calculated to obtain the highest or otherwise best value for the Purchased Assets obtainable under the circumstances.

G. Auction. The Auction occurred on June 21, 2024, in accordance with the Bid Procedures Order. The Auction was properly conducted in a manner designed to result in the highest or otherwise best offer for the Purchased Assets. At the Auction, the Trustee agreed in an exercise of his business judgment, in consultation with his professionals and advisors, to enter and consummate the Asset Purchase Agreement. At the conclusion of the Auction, the Trustee announced that he had determined that the offer submitted by the Buyer was the highest and best offer, and that the Buyer was the Successful Bidder in accordance with the Bid Procedures Order.

H. Corporate Authority. Subject to this Order, the Trustee will have all necessary power and authority to (i) execute and deliver the Asset Purchase Agreement and all other documents contemplated thereby, (ii) consummate the Sale Transaction, and (iii) execute any document necessary or appropriate to effectuate the Sale Transaction. No consents or approvals, other than those expressly provided for in the Asset Purchase Agreement, are required for the Trustee to consummate the Sale Transaction on behalf of the Debtor's bankruptcy estate.

I. Business Justification. The Trustee has demonstrated good, sufficient, and sound business purposes and justifications for approval of and entry into the Asset Purchase Agreement and the other agreements, documents, and instruments deliverable thereunder, pursuant to section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

J. Highest and Otherwise Best Offer. Pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement, the Buyer has offered to purchase the Purchased Assets in exchange for (i) $27,250,000 in cash and (ii) the assumption of all Assumed Liabilities. The consideration to be provided by the Buyer pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement: (i) is fair and reasonable; (ii) is the highest and otherwise best offer for the Purchased Assets received at the Auction; and (iii) constitutes reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration for the Purchased Assets. No other person, entity, or group of entities has offered to purchase the Purchased Assets for greater economic value to the Debtor's estate than the Buyer. The Trustee's determination that the Asset Purchase Agreement constitutes the highest and best offer likely obtainable for the Purchased Assets was a valid, sound, and reasonable exercise of the Trustee's business judgment consistent with his fiduciary duties. The terms and conditions set forth in the Asset Purchase Agreement are fair and reasonable under the circumstances. The Asset Purchase Agreement was not entered into by the Buyer or the Trustee for the purpose of, nor does it have the effect of, hindering, delaying, or defrauding any creditor of the Debtor under any of the foregoing federal or state laws or any other applicable laws.

K. Good Faith Purchaser. The Asset Purchase Agreement and the Sale Transaction were proposed, negotiated, and entered into by and among the Trustee and the Buyer without collusion or fraud, in good faith, and at arm's length. The Buyer is a good faith purchaser within the meaning of Bankruptcy Code section 363(m) and is therefore entitled to the full protection of that provision with respect to the Asset Purchase Agreement, the Sale Transaction, each term of the Asset Purchase Agreement (and any ancillary documents executed in connection therewith) and each term of this Sale Order. The protections afforded by Bankruptcy Code section 363(m) are integral to the Sale Transaction and the Buyer would not consummate the Sale Transaction without such protections. There has been no showing that the Trustee or the Buyer have engaged in any action or inaction that would cause or permit the Asset Purchase Agreement or the Sale Transaction to be avoided or any costs or damages to be imposed under Bankruptcy Code section 363(n). Neither the Buyer, nor any of its affiliates, members, controlling partners, officers, directors, principals, or shareholders is an "insider" of the Debtor as that term is defined in Bankruptcy Code section 101(31). No common identity of directors, managers, controlling partners, shareholders, or members exists between the Debtor and the Buyer.

L. Validity of the Transfer. As of the closing of the Sale Transaction (the “Closing”), the transfer of Purchased Assets to the Buyer will be a legal, valid, and effective transfer of such Purchased Assets, and will vest the Buyer with all right, title, and interest of the Debtor and the Debtor’s estate in and to the Purchased Assets, free and clear of all liens, claims, encumbrances, and other interests. The consummation of the Sale Transaction is legal, valid, and properly authorized under all applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, including, sections 105(a), 363(b), 363(f), 363(h), 365(f), and 365(m), and all of the applicable requirements of such sections have been complied with in respect of the Sale Transaction.

M. Legal, Valid, and Binding Transfer. The Asset Purchase Agreement is a valid and binding contract between the Trustee, on behalf of the Debtor’s bankruptcy estate, and the Buyer and shall be enforceable pursuant to its terms. The Asset Purchase Agreement, the Sale Transaction, and the consummation thereof shall be specifically enforceable against and binding upon (without posting any bond) the Trustee, any successor trustee appointed, the Debtor, 2425 WL LLC, and Ali Choudhri, and shall not be subject to rejection or avoidance by the foregoing parties or any other person.

N. Free and Clear. The Buyer would not have entered into the Asset Purchase Agreement and would not consummate the Sale Transaction if the transfer of the Purchased Assets to the Buyer and the assumption and assignment of the Designated Assigned Contracts to the Buyer were not free and clear of all liens, claims, encumbrances and other interests, as provided for herein, or if the Buyer would, or in the future could, be liable for any such claims. Subject to the provisions of this Sale Order and except as may be specifically provided in the Asset Purchase Agreement or this Sale Order, the Trustee’s sale of the Purchased Assets shall be free and clear of any and all interests, including all liens, claims, and encumbrances, because, in each case, one or more of the standards set forth in sections 363(f)(1) through (5) of the Bankruptcy Code have been satisfied. Each entity with an interest, including any lien, claim, or encumbrance, in the Purchased Assets to be transferred on the Closing Date: (i) has, subject to the terms and conditions of this Sale Order, consented to the Sale Transaction or is deemed to have consented to the extent that they did not object; (ii) could be compelled in a legal or equitable proceeding to accept money satisfaction of such lien, claim, interest, or encumbrance; or (iii) otherwise falls within the provisions of Bankruptcy Code section 363(f). Except to the extent expressly set forth in the Asset Purchase Agreement, this Sale Order is and shall be effective on the date of the Closing (the "Closing Date") as a determination that all liens, claims, encumbrances, and other interests of any kind or nature whatsoever existing as to the Purchased Assets prior to the Closing Date have been unconditionally released, discharged, and terminated, in each case to the fullest extent permitted by law, and that the conveyances described herein have been effected; provided that such liens, claims, encumbrances, and other interests shall attach to the proceeds of the Sale Transaction in the order of their priority, with the same validity, force, and effect which they now have against the Purchased Assets. Except to the extent expressly set forth in the Asset Purchase Agreement, the Buyer shall not be responsible for any liens, claims, encumbrances, and other interests, including any derivative, successor, transferee, or vicarious liability as a result of the transactions authorized herein, including liabilities on account of any taxes arising, accruing, or payable under, out of, in connection with, or in any way relating to the operation of Debtor's business or administration of the bankruptcy estate prior to the Closing or by reason of the transactions contemplated by this Sale Order on account of the Sale Transaction. Upon the Closing Date, all persons having liens of any kind or nature whatsoever against the Purchased Assets arising prior to the Closing Date shall be forever barred, estopped, and permanently enjoined from pursuing or asserting such liens against the Buyer or any of its respective assets, property, affiliates, successors, assigns, or the Purchased Assets.

O. Not a Sub Rosa Plan. The Asset Purchase Agreement and Sale Transaction do not constitute an impermissible sub rosa chapter 11 plan for which approval has been sought without the protections that a disclosure statement would afford. The Asset Purchase Agreement and the Sale Transaction neither impermissibly restructure the rights of the Debtor's creditors nor impermissibly dictate a liquidating plan for the Debtor.

P. No Successor, Derivative, or Similar Liability. The Buyer (i) is not, and shall not be, considered a successor in interest to the Debtor, (ii) has not, de facto or otherwise, merged or consolidated with or into the Debtor, (iii) is not a continuation or substantial continuation of the Debtor or any enterprise of the Debtor, and (iv) is not holding itself out to the public as a continuation of the Debtor. There is no continuity or common identity between the Buyer, any of its affiliates, and the Debtor. The sale and transfer of the Purchased Assets to the Buyer, including the assumption by the Trustee and assignment, transfer, and/or sale to the Buyer and the Buyer's occupation and use of the Purchased Assets will not subject the Buyer to any liability (including any successor liability) with respect to the operation of any of the Debtor's business before Closing or by reason of such transfer, except that, upon the Closing, the Buyer shall become liable for the applicable Assumed Liabilities. Buyer shall have no obligations with respect to any liabilities of the Debtor or the Debtor's estate arising out of or related to the Purchased Assets, except as expressly provided in the Asset Purchase Agreement. The Sale Transaction contemplated under the Asset Purchase Agreement does not amount to a consolidation, merger or de facto merger of the Buyer and the Debtor and/or the Debtor's estate. The Buyer would not have acquired the Purchased Assets if it were liable for claims based upon "successor liability" theories.

Q. Cure Amounts. As evidenced by the certificates of service filed with this Court, and in accordance with the provisions of the Bid Procedures Order, the Trustee has served notice upon each non-Debtor counterparty to contracts and leases the Trustee potentially would assume and assign (the “Potential Assigned Contracts”) the procedures for determining issues surrounding the assumption and assignment of the Potential Assigned Contracts (the “Notice of Assumption and Assignment Procedures”) and the proposed Cure Amounts upon each non-Debtor counterparty to the Contracts and Leases (the “Contract & Cure Schedule”). The service of the Notice of Assumption and Assignment Procedures and Contract & Cure Schedule was timely, good, sufficient, and appropriate under the circumstances and no other or further notice need be given with respect to the Cure Amounts for the assumption and assignment of the Potential Assigned Contracts. All non-debtor parties to the Potential Assigned Contracts have had a reasonable opportunity to object both to the Cure Amounts listed on the Contract & Cure Schedule and to the assumption and assignment of the Potential Assigned Contracts to the Buyer.

R. Assumption and Assignment of Assigned Contracts. The assumption and assignment of the Potential Assigned Contracts designated by the Buyer (including those designated after the entry of this Sale Order, the “Designated Assigned Contracts”) is an integral element of the Asset Purchase Agreement, is in the best interests of the Debtor’s estate, and represents the reasonable exercise of the Trustee’s sound business judgment. No defaults exist in the Debtor or Trustee’s performance under the Designated Assigned Contracts as of the date of this Sale Order other than the failure to pay the applicable Cure Amounts, as may be required, or such defaults that are not required to be cured. In addition, the Buyer has provided adequate assurance of its ability to perform its obligations under each of the Assigned Contracts within the meaning of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. The assumption and assignment of the Designated Assigned Contracts, subject to the conditions in the Asset Purchase Agreement, is integral to the Asset Purchase Agreement, is in the best interests of the Debtor's estate and creditors, and represents the valid and reasonable exercise of the Trustee's sound business judgment. Specifically, the assumption and assignment of the Designated Assigned Contracts (i) is necessary to sell the Purchased Assets to the Buyer, (ii) limits the losses suffered by counterparties to the Designated Assigned Contracts, and (iii) maximizes value for all of the stakeholders in the Chapter 11 Case by limiting the amount of claims against the Debtor's estate that would otherwise arise from the rejection of the Designated Assigned Contracts or sale free and clear of such interests. The Trustee has met all applicable requirements of section 365(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and the Bid Procedures Order and all other requirements and conditions under the Bankruptcy Code for the assumption and assignment to the Buyer of the Designated Assigned Contracts. Therefore, the Designated Assigned Contracts may be assumed by the Trustee and assigned to the Buyer. The assumption and assignment of each Designated Assigned Contract is approved notwithstanding any provisions in such Designated Assigned Contract or other restrictions prohibiting its assignment or transfer.

S. Prompt Consummation. The Sale Transaction must be approved and consummated promptly in order to maximize value for the Debtor's estate. Time is of the essence in consummating the Sale Transaction. The Trustee has demonstrated compelling circumstances and good and sufficient cause for the immediate approval and consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Asset Purchase Agreement, including, without limitation, the Sale Transaction and the assumption and assignment of the Designated Assigned Contracts. Accordingly, there is sufficient cause to waive the stay contemplated by Bankruptcy Rules 6004(h) and 6006(d) with regard to the transactions contemplated by this Sale Order.

T. Legal and Factual Bases. The legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion and herein establish just cause for the relief granted herein.

U. Necessity of Sale Order. The Buyer would not consummate the transactions without all of the relief provided for in this Sale Order.

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

1. The Motion is GRANTED as set forth herein.
2. Any objections, responses, or reservations of rights filed or asserted in response to the Motion and the relief granted herein, to the extent not resolved as set forth herein, settled, or waived as announced to the Court on the record at the Sale Hearing, are hereby overruled on the merits in their entirety.

Approval of the Asset Purchase Agreement

3. The Asset Purchase Agreement with the Buyer, including all of its terms and conditions, all schedules and exhibits, all ancillary documents, and all transactions contemplated therein, including, without limitation, the Sale Transaction, and the assumption and assignment of the Designated Assigned Contracts, are hereby approved in all respects.

4. Pursuant to sections 105, 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Trustee is authorized and empowered to (i) execute, deliver, perform under, consummate, and implement the Asset Purchase Agreement and the Sale Transaction together with all additional documents as may be reasonably necessary or desirable to implement the Asset Purchase Agreement and the Sale Transaction, (ii) take any and all actions as he deems necessary, appropriate, or advisable for the purpose of assigning, transferring, granting, conveying, and conferring to the Buyer or as may be necessary or appropriate to the performance of the obligations as contemplated by the Asset Purchase Agreement and the Sale Transaction, including, without limitation, any and all actions reasonably requested by the Buyer that are consistent with this Sale Order, the Asset Purchase Agreement, and the Sale Transaction, and (iii) pay, without further order of this Court, whether before, at or after the Closing Date, any expenses or costs that are required or reasonably contemplated to be paid by the Trustee in order to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Asset Purchase Agreement or perform the obligations under the Asset Purchase Agreement.

Transfer of the Purchased Assets Free and Clear

5. Pursuant to sections 105(a), 363(f), and 365(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, upon the Closing of the Sale Transaction: (i) the transfer of the Purchased Assets to the Buyer pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement shall constitute a legal, valid, and effective transfer of the Purchased Assets and shall vest the Buyer with all right, title, and interest in and to the Purchased Assets; and (ii) the Purchased Assets shall be transferred to the Buyer free and clear of any and all interests, including all liens, claims, and encumbrances, except those specifically assumed by the Buyer pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement, with any such liens, claims, encumbrances, and other interests of which the Purchased Assets are sold free and clear to attach to the proceeds of the Sale Transaction, in the order of their priority, with the same validity, force, and effect which they had against the Purchased Assets prior to the entry of this Sale Order and the Closing, subject to any rights, claims, and defenses the Debtor, its estate, and all interested parties may possess with respect thereto; and all persons are forever prohibited and enjoined from commencing or continuing in any manner any action or other proceeding, whether in law or equity, against the Buyer or the Purchased Assets with respect to any such liens, claims, encumbrances, and other interests. Accordingly, the Buyer shall not have any derivative, successor, transferee, or vicarious liability as a result of the transactions authorized herein, including liabilities on account of any taxes arising, accruing, or payable under, out of, in connection with, or in any way relating to the operation of the Debtor's business prior to the Closing or by reason of the transactions contemplated by this Sale Order.

6. In accordance with the Asset Purchase Agreement, any property tax debt or ad valorem tax debt assessed with respect to the Purchased Assets for the taxable period that begins prior to the Closing Date and ends after the Closing Date shall be prorated between the Debtor's estate and the Buyer based on the number of full days in such period that occur before the Closing Date, on the one hand, and the number of days in such period that occur on or after the Closing Date, on the other hand. As set forth above, the Buyer shall not have any liability for the property tax debt or ad valorem tax debt accrued prior to the Closing Date.

7. On the Closing Date, this Sale Order shall be construed and shall constitute for any and all purposes a legal, valid, binding, and effective, full, and complete general assignment, conveyance, and transfer of the interests of the Debtor and the Debtor's estate in the Purchased Assets, warranty deed and/or a bill of sale transferring good and marketable title in and to the Purchased Assets.

8. The Trustee is authorized to execute any documents or instruments on behalf of the Debtor necessary or appropriate to effectuate the Sale Transaction contemplated by this Sale Order.

9. This Sale Order is and shall be effective as a determination that all liens, claims, encumbrances, and other interests (other than those expressly assumed by the Buyer or permitted to survive under the Asset Purchase Agreement), attributable to any period ending on or before the Closing Date, shall be and are, without further action by any person or entity, unconditionally released, discharged, and terminated with respect to the Purchased Assets as of the Closing Date, except as may otherwise be set forth in the Asset Purchase Agreement or this Sale Order. The provisions of this Sale Order authorizing the sale and assignment of the Purchased Assets free and clear of all liens, claims, encumbrances, and other interests shall be self-executing, and notwithstanding the failure of the Debtor, the Trustee, the Buyer, or any other party to execute, file, or obtain releases, termination statements, assignments, consents, or other instruments to effectuate, consummate, and/or implement the provisions hereof, all liens, claims, encumbrances, and other interests (other than those expressly assumed by the Buyer or permitted to survive under the Asset Purchase Agreement) on or against the Purchased Assets, if any, shall be deemed released, discharged, and terminated.

10. All persons (and their respective successors and assigns) including all debt security holders, equity security holders, governmental tax and regulatory authorities, lenders, customers, vendors, employees, former employees, litigation claimants, trade creditors, and any other creditors or parties-in-interest who may or do hold claims against the Debtor, the Purchased Assets, the Debtor's business, and/or the Debtor's estate, are hereby forever barred, estopped, and permanently enjoined from asserting or pursuing such claims against the Buyer, its affiliates, successors, assigns, its property, or the Purchased Assets, including taking any of the following actions with respect to any such claims: (i) commencing or continuing in any manner any action, whether at law or in equity, in any judicial, administrative, arbitral, or any other proceeding, against the Buyer, its affiliates, successors, assigns, assets (including the Purchased Assets), or properties; (ii) enforcing, attaching, collecting, or recovering in any manner any judgment, award, decree, or order against the Buyer, its affiliates, successors, assigns, assets (including the Purchased Assets), or properties; (iii) creating, perfecting, or enforcing any claim against the Buyer, its affiliates, successors, assigns, assets (including the Purchased Assets), or properties; (iv) asserting a claim as a setoff, recoupment, or right of subrogation against any obligation due to the Buyer, its affiliates, or its successors or assigns; or (v) commencing or continuing any action in any manner or place that does not comply, or is inconsistent, with the provisions of this Sale Order or the agreements or actions contemplated or taken in respect thereof. Following the Closing, no holder of any lien, claim, encumbrance, or other interest shall interfere with the Buyer's title to or use and enjoyment of the Purchased Assets based on or related to any such lien, claim, encumbrance, or other interest or based on any action the Debtor, Trustee, or Buyer may take prior to the Closing.

11. Except as otherwise provided herein or in the Asset Purchase Agreement, on the Closing Date, the Trustee, the Debtor, and the Debtor's creditors are authorized to execute such documents and instruments and to take all other actions as may be reasonably necessary to document and effectuate the release of their liens, claims, encumbrances, and other interests in the Purchased Assets (other than those expressly assumed by the Buyer or permitted to survive under the Asset Purchase Agreement), if any, as such liens, claims, encumbrances, and other interests, may have been recorded or may otherwise exist. If any such creditor fails to execute any such documents or instruments or take any such actions, the Buyer is authorized to execute such documents and instruments and to take such actions on behalf of the creditor so as to document the release of such liens, claims, encumbrances, and other interests.

12. To the maximum extent permitted under applicable law, the Buyer shall be authorized, as of the Closing Date, to operate under any license, permit, registration and governmental authorization or approval of the Debtor (to the extent of the Debtor's right, title and interest therein) with respect to the Purchased Assets, and all such licenses, permits, registrations and governmental authorizations and approvals are deemed to have been, and hereby are, directed to be transferred to the Buyer with respect to the Purchased Assets as of the Closing Date.

13. No governmental unit (as defined in Bankruptcy Code section 101(27)) or any representative thereof may deny, revoke, suspend or refuse to renew any right, license, copyright, patent, trademark, or other permission or similar grant relating to the operation of the Purchased

Assets on account of the filing or pendency of the Chapter 11 Case or the consummation of the Sale Transaction to the extent that any such action by a governmental unit or any representative thereof would violate Bankruptcy Code section 525.

Good Faith; Arm's-Length Sale

14. The consideration provided by the Buyer under the Asset Purchase Agreement constitutes reasonably equivalent value, fair consideration, and fair value for the Purchased Assets under the Asset Purchase Agreement under the Bankruptcy Code, the Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act, the Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act, and any other applicable law and may not be avoided under section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law. Neither the Trustee nor the Buyer has engaged in any conduct that would cause or permit the Asset Purchase Agreement or the Sale Transaction to be avoided, or costs or damages to be imposed, under section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Asset Purchase Agreement was not entered into, and the Sale Transaction is not being consummated, for the purpose of hindering, delaying or defrauding creditors of the Debtor under the Bankruptcy Code, or any other applicable laws. Neither the Trustee nor the Buyer has entered into the Asset Purchase Agreement or is consummating the Sale Transaction with any fraudulent or otherwise improper purpose.

15. The Asset Purchase Agreement and the Sale Transaction are undertaken by the Buyer without collusion and in good faith, as that term is used in section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code and, accordingly, the reversal or modification on appeal of the authorization provided herein to consummate the Asset Purchase Agreement and the Sale Transaction shall not affect the validity of the sale of the Purchased Assets to the Buyer, unless this Sale Order is duly stayed pending such appeal. The Buyer is a good faith Buyer of the Purchased Assets and is entitled to all of the benefits and protections afforded by section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Assumption and Assignment Procedures

16. Pursuant to sections 105(a), 363, and 365, of the Bankruptcy Code, the Trustee is authorized to assume the Designated Assigned Contracts (if any) designated for assumption and assignment in accordance with the Asset Purchase Agreement, pay or cause to be paid the Cure Amount for the Designated Assigned Contracts from the proceeds of the Sale Transaction, and assign the Designated Assigned Contracts to the Buyer, free and clear of all claims, liens, encumbrances, and other interests of any kind or nature whatsoever, provided that any contracts with RGN-MCA7387, RGN-MCA7386, 2425 West Loop, LLC, Jetall Companies, Inc. and/or Dayhome River Oaks, LLC shall not be assumed or assigned absent further order of the Court, and notwithstanding the language contained herein, all of the rights of RGN-MCA7387, RGN-MCA7386, and 2425 West Loop, LLC are reserved. The Buyer may designate additional Designated Assigned Contracts or remove any Designated Assigned Contracts up to thirty (30) days after the Closing in cooperation (a) with the Trustee if the Closing occurs prior to the effective date of a plan of reorganization or liquidation and (b) the plan proponent if the Closing occurs on or after the effective date of a plan of reorganization or liquidation. A final schedule of the Designated Assigned Contracts (the “Final Schedule of Contracts/Leases”) shall be filed with the Court no later than thirty (30) days after the Closing.

17. Subject to and conditioned upon the closing of the Sale Transaction, and subject to the designation rights and procedures contained in this Sale Order, the Bid Procedures Order, the Asset Purchase Agreement, and any confirmed plan of reorganization or liquidation, the Trustee shall pay the undisputed portion of the Cure Amounts for the Designated Assigned Contracts within three (3) business days of the filing of the Final Schedule of Contracts/Leases from the proceeds of the Sale Transaction in the amounts determined pursuant to the Assumption and Assignment Procedures, without the need for further order of the Court.

18. The Buyer has provided adequate assurance of future performance under the Assigned Contracts within the meaning of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code.

19. The Designated Assigned Contracts, consistent with the provisions contained herein, shall be transferred to, and remain in full force and effect for the benefit of, the Buyer in accordance with their respective terms, notwithstanding any provision in any such Designated Assigned Contract (including those of the type described in section 365(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code) that prohibits, restricts, or conditions such assignment or transfer and, pursuant to section 365(k) of the Bankruptcy Code, effective upon the Closing and the Trustee and the Debtor's estate shall be relieved from any post-Closing liability with respect to the Designated Assigned Contracts after such assignment to the Buyer. No sections or provisions of any Designated Assigned Contract that purport to provide for additional payments, penalties, charges, or other financial accommodations in favor of the non-debtor counterparty to the Designated Assigned Contracts shall have any force or effect with respect to the Sale Transaction and assignments authorized by this Sale Order. Such provisions constitute unenforceable anti-assignment provisions under section 365(f) of the Bankruptcy Code and are otherwise unenforceable under section 365(e) of the Bankruptcy Code. There shall be no accelerations, assignment fees, increases, or any other fees charged to the Buyer, the Trustee, or the Debtor's estate as a result of the assumption or assignment of Designated Assigned Contracts, the Sale Transaction, or the commencement of this Chapter 11 Case. No Designated Assigned Contract may be terminated, or the rights of any party modified in any respect, including pursuant to any "change of control" clause, by any other party thereto, as a result of the transactions contemplated by the Asset Purchase Agreement.

20. All defaults or other obligations of the Debtor or the Debtor's estate under the Designated Assigned Contracts arising or accruing prior to the Closing (without giving effect to any acceleration clauses or any default provisions of the kind specified in section 365(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code) shall be deemed cured, upon payment of the Cure Amount for the Designated Assigned Contracts, and in no event shall the Buyer, the Trustee, the Debtor, or the Debtor's estate have any liability whatsoever under any Designated Assigned Contract arising from or related to the time period prior to the Closing Date. The non-debtor counterparties to the Designated Assigned Contracts are forever barred and permanently enjoined from asserting against the Trustee, the Debtor, the Debtor's estate, the Buyer, and their respective successors and assigns, any default or unpaid obligation allegedly arising or occurring before the Closing, any pecuniary loss resulting from such default, or any other claim or obligation under the Designated Assigned Contracts arising or incurred prior to the Closing, other than the Cure Amounts for the Designated Assigned Contracts. The Cure Amounts shall not be subject to further dispute or audit, including, without limitation, any audit based on performance prior to the Closing Date, irrespective of whether such Designated Assigned Contract contains an audit clause. After the payment of the applicable Cure Amounts, none of the Debtor, the Debtor's estate, the Trustee, or the Buyer shall have any further liabilities to the counterparties to the Designated Assigned Contracts other than the Buyer's obligations under the Designated Assigned Contracts that accrue and become due and payable on or after the Closing Date.

21. In the event of a dispute pending as of the Closing regarding the assumption and assignment or cure of any Designated Assigned Contract, any applicable cure payments with respect to such Designated Assigned Contract shall be made following the entry of an order resolving any such dispute (or upon the consensual resolution of such dispute as may be agreed by the Trustee and such non-Debtor counterparty).

22. The failure of the Debtor, Trustee, or the Buyer to enforce, at any time, one or more terms or conditions of any Designated Assigned Contract shall not be a waiver of such terms or conditions or of the right of the Debtor, the Trustee, or the Buyer, as the case may be, to enforce every term and condition of the Designated Assigned Contracts. The validity of the assumption and assignment of the Designated Assigned Contracts to the Buyer shall not be affected by any existing dispute between the Debtor or the Trustee and any non-debtor counterparty to such Designated Assigned Contract. Any party that may have had the right to consent to the assignment of any Designated Assigned Contract is deemed to have consented for the purposes of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and otherwise if such party failed to file a timely objection to the assumption and assignment of such Designated Assigned Contract.

23. To the extent a non-debtor counterparty to a Potential Assigned Contract failed to timely object to the Cure Amount, (i) such Cure Amount shall be deemed to be finally determined and any such counterparty shall be prohibited from challenging, objecting to, or denying the validity and finality of the Cure Amount at any time, and (ii) such counterparty shall be deemed to have consented to such assignment under section 365(c)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code, and if designated by the Buyer for assumption and assignment, the Buyer shall enjoy all of the Debtor's rights and benefits under each such Designated Assigned Contract as of the applicable date of assumption without the necessity of obtaining such non-debtor party's written consent to the assumption or assignment thereof.

Ipsso Facto Clauses Ineffective

24. Except as otherwise specifically provided for by order of this Court, the Designated Assigned Contracts shall be transferred to, and remain in full force and effect for the benefit of, the Buyer in accordance with their respective terms, including all rights of the Buyer as the assignee of the Designated Assigned Contracts, notwithstanding any provision in any such Designated Assigned Contracts (including, without limitation, those of the type described in sections 365(e)(1) and (f) of the Bankruptcy Code) that prohibits, restricts, or conditions such assignment or transfer. There shall be no, and all non-Debtor parties to any Designated Assigned Contract are forever barred and permanently enjoined from raising or asserting against the Debtor, the Debtor's estate, or the Buyer any defaults, breaches, claims, pecuniary losses, rent accelerations, escalations, assignment fees, increases, or any other fees charged to the Buyer, the Debtor, or the Debtor's estate as a result of the assumption or assignment of the Designated Assigned Contracts.

25. Except as otherwise specifically provided for by order of this Court, upon the Trustee's assignment of the Designated Assigned Contracts to the Buyer, no default shall exist under any Designated Assigned Contracts, and no counterparty to any Designated Assigned Contracts shall be permitted to declare a default by the Debtor, the Trustee, or the Buyer, or otherwise take action against the Buyer, as a result of the Debtor's financial condition, bankruptcy, or failure to perform any of its obligations under the relevant Designated Assigned Contracts. Any provision in a Designated Assigned Contract that prohibits or conditions the assignment of such Assumed Contract in accordance with the Asset Purchase Agreement (including without limitation, the granting of a lien therein) or allows the counterparty thereto to terminate, recapture, set off, recoup, impose any penalty, condition on renewal or extension, or modify any term or condition upon such assignment or sublease, constitutes an unenforceable anti-assignment provision that is void and of no force and effect, but only in connection with the assignment of such Designated Assigned Contract in connection with the sale to the Buyer approved by this Sale Order. The failure of the Debtor, Trustee, or the Buyer to enforce at any time one or more terms or conditions of any Designated Assigned Contract shall not be a waiver of such terms or conditions, or of the Trustee's and the Buyer's rights to enforce every term and condition of the Designated Assigned Contract.

No Successor Liability

26. The Buyer has given substantial consideration under the Asset Purchase Agreement, which consideration shall constitute valid, valuable, and sufficient consideration for the absolution from any potential claims of successor liability of the Buyer to the greatest extent allowed by applicable law and neither the Buyer nor any of its affiliates shall be deemed to: (a) be a legal successor, or otherwise deemed to be a successor, to the Debtor under any theory of law or equity; (b) have, de facto or otherwise, merged with or into the Debtor or its estate; (c) have a common identity or a continuity of enterprise with the Debtor; or (d) be a mere continuation or substantial continuation, or be holding itself out as a mere continuation, of the Debtor or any business, enterprise, or operation of the Debtor. Upon the Closing, to the maximum extent available under applicable law, Buyer's acquisition of the Purchased Assets owned by the Debtor shall be free and clear of any "successor liability" claims and other types of transferee liability of any nature whatsoever, whether known or unknown and whether asserted or unasserted at the time of Closing (other than, to the extent applicable, any Assumed Liabilities). The operations of the Buyer and its affiliates shall not be deemed a continuation of the Debtor's business as a result of the acquisition of the Purchased Assets.

27. Neither the purchase of the Purchased Assets by the Buyer nor the fact that the Buyer is using any of the Purchased Assets previously operated by the Debtor will cause the Buyer to be deemed a successor in any respect to the Debtor's businesses or incur any liability derived therefrom within the meaning of any foreign, federal, state or local revenue, pension, ERISA, tax, labor, employment, environmental, or other law, rule or regulation (including filing requirements under any such laws, rules or regulations), or under any products liability law or doctrine with respect to the Debtor's liability under such law, rule or regulation or doctrine.

Backup Bidder

28. If the Buyer fails to timely close the Sale Transaction pursuant to the Asset Purchase Agreement as the result of Buyer's default thereunder, the Trustee is authorized to sell the Assets to the National Bank of Kuwait, S.A.K.P., New York Branch (the "Backup Bidder") for a credit bid amount totaling $27,000,000 and otherwise under the terms of Stalking Horse Agreement and the Chapter 11 Plan of Liquidation of the Debtor by National Bank of Kuwait S.A.K.P., New York Branch [ECF No. 194] (the "Plan"), as modified by the confirmation order [ECF No. 566] (the "Confirmation Order") entered by the Court.

29. The terms of this Sale Order shall apply in all respects to any sale of the Assets to the Backup Bidder as if the Backup Bidder were the Buyer, except that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Sale Order, (a) the payments to holders of allowed claims shall be made as set out in the Plan and Confirmation Order and (b) the Plan and Confirmation Order shall control in the event of any inconsistency between this Sale Order and the Plan or Confirmation Order.

Partial Disbursement of Proceeds

30. Within ten (10) days of the Closing of the Sale Transaction to the Successful Bidder pursuant to this Order, the Trustee is authorized and directed to make from the cash proceeds of the Sale Transaction (collectively, the "Directed Payoff Amounts" (a) any payments ordered by the Court, including without limitation any order on the Application for Reimbursement of Fees and Expenses Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 506(b) and Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 2016(a) [ECF No. 575] filed by CC2 TX, LLC, and (b) the following payments:

National Bank of Kuwait, S.A.K.P., New York Branch	13	$1,696,384.85	$1,696,384.85

Payments to creditors as a Directed Payoff Amount shall not (x) limit the rights of any creditor to receive the full amount due under applicable law or (y) preclude any party from pursuing claims against a creditor receiving a Directed Payoff Amount, including any claims of Ali Choudhri against the National Bank of Kuwait.

31. Subject to the agreement of the National Bank of Kuwait, S.A.K.P., New York Branch, the Trustee is authorized but not directed to pay documented additional amounts necessary to satisfy the secured claims of the creditors receiving the Directed Payoff Amounts, other than the National Bank of Kuwait, comprising interest accrual and costs and expenses incurred prior to Closing that are not reflected in the Directed Payoff Amounts (the “Authorized Payoff Amounts”). The Authorized Payoff Amounts shall include, subject to the agreement of the National Bank of Kuwait, S.A.K.P., late fees of CC2 TX, LLC in the amount of $479.76 per month from the Petition Date.

32. For the avoidance of doubt, the Trustee may make the Directed Payoff Amounts and Authorized Payoff Amounts simultaneously or contemporaneously with the Closing.

Injunction Regarding Actions by Insiders Absent Leave of the Court

33. The Debtor, Mr. Choudhri, any entity owned or controlled directly or indirectly by Mr. Choudhri, and any entity to which Mr. Choudhri is an insider as defined in Bankruptcy

Code section 101(31) are barred and estopped from pursuing or asserting any lawsuit or other action against the Buyer, the Trustee, or the forgoing's professionals involving the Sale Transaction, the Auction, or the sale process with respect to the Purchased Assets without first obtaining leave of this Court.

Other Related Relief

34. All persons that are in possession of some or all of the Purchased Assets as of or after the Closing are hereby directed to surrender possession of such Purchased Assets to the Buyer as of the Closing or at such time thereafter as the Buyer may request. All persons and entities are prohibited and enjoined from taking any action to adversely affect or interfere with the ability of the Trustee to transfer the Purchased Assets to the Buyer. The Trustee agrees to exercise commercially reasonable efforts to assist the Buyer in assuring that all persons that are presently, or on the date of the Closing may be, in possession of some or all of the Purchased Assets in which the Debtor's estate holds an interest will surrender possession of the Purchased Assets either to (i) the Trustee before the Closing Date, or (ii) the Buyer on or after the date of the Closing.

35. This Sale Order is and shall be binding upon and shall govern acts of all entities including, without limitation, all filing agents, filing officers, title agents, title companies, recorders of mortgages, recorders of fees, registrars of deeds, administrative agencies, governmental departments, secretaries of state, federal, state, and local officials, and all other persons, who may be required by operation of law, the duties of their office, or contract, to accept, file, register or otherwise record or release any documents or instruments that reflect that the Buyer is the assignee and owner of the Purchased Assets free and clear of all liens, claims, encumbrances, and other interests (other than those expressly assumed by the Buyer or permitted to survive under the Asset Purchase Agreement) (all such entities being referred to as the "Recording Officers"). All Recording Officers are authorized to strike recorded liens, claims, interests, and encumbrances against the Purchased Assets recorded prior to the date of this Sale Order unless the Asset Purchase Agreement expressly provides that the Buyer is acquiring the Purchased Assets subject to such liens, claims, encumbrances, and other interests. A certified copy of this Sale Order may be filed with the appropriate clerk and/or recorded with the recorder to act to cancel any liens and other encumbrances of record, and this Sale Order is deemed to be in recordable form sufficient to be placed in the filing or recording system of each and every federal, state, or local government agency, department, or office. If any person or entity which has filed statements or other documents or agreements evidencing liens on, or other interests in, all or any portion of the Purchased Assets shall not have delivered to the Trustee prior to the Closing, in proper form for filing and executed by the appropriate parties, termination statements, instruments of satisfaction, releases of liens, and any other documents necessary for the purpose of documenting the release of all liens, claims, encumbrances, or other interests which the person or entity has or may assert with respect to all or any portion of the Purchased Assets, the Trustee and Buyer are hereby authorized, on behalf of the Debtor, the Debtor's estate, and each of the Debtor's creditors, to execute and file such statements, instruments, releases, and other documents on behalf of such person or entity with respect to the Purchased Assets, or take such other appropriate action, including seeking relief in this Court or any other court to compel appropriate parties to execute termination statements, instruments of satisfaction and releases of all such liens, claims, encumbrances, or other interests with respect to the Purchased Assets. Each and every filing agent, filing officer, title agent, recording agency, governmental department, secretary of state, federal, state and local official, and any other person and entity who may be required by operation of law, the duties of its office or contract, to accept, file, register, or otherwise record or release any documents or instruments or who may be required to report or insure any title in or to the Purchased Assets, is hereby authorized and directed to accept any and all documents and instruments necessary and appropriate to consummate the Sale Transaction contemplated by the Asset Purchase Agreement and approved by this Sale Order.

36. Following the Closing, no holder of any liens, claims, encumbrances, or other interests with respect to the Purchased Assets (other than those expressly assumed by the Buyer or permitted to survive under the Asset Purchase Agreement) or other party in interest may interfere with the Buyer's use and enjoyment of the Purchased Assets based on or related to such liens, claims, encumbrances, or other interests, or any actions that the Debtor or the Trustee may take in the Chapter 11 Case, and no party may take any action to prevent, interfere with, or otherwise enjoin consummation of the Sale Transaction.

37. No "bulk sales," "bulk transfer" or similar laws (including those relating to taxes) of any state or other jurisdiction shall apply in any way to the transactions authorized herein, including the Asset Purchase Agreement and the Sale Transaction.

38. The Buyer shall not be required to seek or obtain relief from the automatic stay under section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code to enforce any of its remedies under the Asset Purchase Agreement or any other related document. The automatic stay imposed by section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code is modified solely to the extent necessary to implement the preceding sentence.

39. This Sale Order shall be binding in all respects upon the Debtor's estate, all claimants and creditors, all holders of equity interests in the Debtor, any holders of liens, claims, encumbrances, or other interests against or on all or any portion of the Purchased Assets, all counterparties to any executory contract or unexpired lease of the Debtor, the Buyer and its affiliates, successors, and assigns, the Trustee, and any subsequently appointed estate representative or other fiduciary in the Chapter 11 Case. The Asset Purchase Agreement, the Sale Transaction, and this Sale Order shall be enforceable against and binding upon, and shall not be subject to rejection or avoidance by, any chapter 7 or successor chapter 11 trustee appointed in the Chapter 11 Case. To the extent that anything contained in any plan of reorganization (or liquidation) confirmed in the Chapter 11 Case or any order confirming any plan of reorganization (or liquidation) or any other order entered in these Chapter 11 Case conflicts with or derogates from the provisions of this Sale Order, this Sale Order shall control.

40. The Asset Purchase Agreement and any related agreements, documents, or other instruments contemplated thereby may be waived, modified, amended, or supplemented by the Trustee and the Buyer in a writing signed by such parties without further order of the Court; provided that any such waiver, modification, amendment, or supplement does not have a material adverse effect on the Debtor's estate.

41. The failure to include specifically any particular provision of the Asset Purchase Agreement in this Sale Order shall not diminish or impair the effectiveness of such provision, it being the intent of the Court that the Asset Purchase Agreement be authorized and approved in its entirety.

42. To the extent of any inconsistency between the provisions of this Sale Order, the Asset Purchase Agreement, and any documents executed in connection therewith, the provisions contained in this Sale Order, the Asset Purchase Agreement, and any documents executed in connection therewith shall govern, in that order.

43. Notwithstanding the provisions of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h) and 6006(d) or any other applicable provision of the Bankruptcy Code or the Bankruptcy Rules that may stay the effectiveness of this Sale Order, this Sale Order shall be effective and enforceable immediately and shall not be stayed.

44. The Trustee is authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted in this Sale Order.

45. Without further approval of this Court, the Trustee and Buyer are authorized to execute and deliver, and perform under, one or more amendments, waivers, consents or other modifications to and under the Asset Purchase Agreement and ancillary documents, in each case, in such form as the Trustee and Buyer may agree; provided that such amendment, waiver, consent, or modification does not materially modify, in a manner adverse to the Debtor's estate, the terms of the Asset Purchase Agreement.

46. This Court retains jurisdiction and power to, among other things, interpret, implement, and enforce the terms and provisions of this Sale Order, the Sale Transaction, and the Asset Purchase Agreement, all amendments thereto and any waivers and consents thereunder, and each of the agreements executed in connection therewith and the transactions contemplated thereby.

RELIEF IS REQUESTED NOT LATER THAN DECEMBER 3, 2024.

National Bank of Kuwait, S.A.K.P., New York Branch (“NBK”) and Houston 2425 Galleria, LLC (“NBK’s Assignee”) file this Emergency Motion to Enforce Sale Order (the “Motion”)¹ and represent follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. Ali Choudhri is the President of Jetall Companies, Inc. (“Jetall”). Jetall occupies and refuses to vacate suite 1100 (11th floor) of the office building located at 2425 West Loop South, Houston, Texas (the “Property”), trespassing and diminishing the value of the Property that NBK’s Assignee acquired, as designee and assignee of NBK, pursuant to the Sale Order.

2. NBK’s Assignee commenced an eviction proceeding against Jetall in the Harris County Justice of the Peace Court, Precinct 1, Place 1 (the “JP Court”), styled Houston 2425 Galleria, LLC v. Jetall Companies, Inc., Cause No. 241100353166. The JP Court held a trial on November 12, 2024 and entered an order, attached as Exhibit A, dismissing the eviction proceeding “due to lack of jurisdiction.” Jetall argued to the JP Court that it lacked jurisdiction. Thus, NBK must return to this Court for relief.

3. Although NBK and NBK’s Assignee believe that the JP Court had jurisdiction to evict Jetall, there is no doubt that this Court has jurisdiction to enforce its own orders, and NBK, and on behalf of NBK’s Assignee, requests that this Court enforce the Sale Order by entering an order, substantially in the form of the proposed order attached as Exhibit B.

4. The Sale Order authorized the sale of the Property “free and clear of all liens, claims, encumbrances, and other interests.” [Docket No. 608 at p. 7 ¶¶ L and N; p. 14 ¶ 9; p. 26 ¶ 35] (emphasis added). Jetall is deemed to have accepted and cannot challenge the Sale Order because it never objected to or appealed from its entry. Additionally, the fact that the Confirmation

Order is on appeal is irrelevant. First, Jetall did not appeal the Confirmation Order or any reference it made to a free and clear sale.² And, it cannot piggyback on 2425 WL, LLC's ("2425 WL") appeal which, in any event, has been narrowed by 2425 WL such that, 2425 WL contends, even if 2425 WL is successful, that will not result in an unwinding of the "free and clear" sale of the Property. Thus, despite Jetall's arguments in JP Court, there is no issue of title, and this Court should enforce the Sale Order.

BACKGROUND

5. On December 5, 2023, the Debtor commenced a voluntary case under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code") in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas (the "Court"). The Debtor filed multiple unconfirmable plans of reorganization,³ the first of which was filed on the eve of the hearing on National Bank of Kuwait, S.A.K.P., New York Branch's Motion Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1112(b) to Convert Chapter 11 Case to Chapter 7 [Docket No. 72]. On January 31, 2024, the Court entered its Order Abating Motion to Convert to Chapter 7 and Appointing Chapter 11 Trustee [Docket No. 99]. On April 5, 2024, the Chapter 11 Trustee's Motion for Entry of an Order: (I) Approving Procedures for the Sale of the Property Free and Clear of All Liens, Claims and Encumbrances; (II) Scheduling an Auction; (III) Authorizing Entry into the Stalking Horse Purchase Agreement; (IV) Approving Assumption and Assignment Procedures; (V) Approving Form of Notice; and (VI) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 188] was filed. On April 10, 2024, the Chapter 11 Plan of Liquidation of the Debtor by National Bank of Kuwait S.A.K.P., New York Branch [Docket No. 194] was filed.

² The Confirmation Order, in addition to the Sale Order, authorized the sale of the Property "free and clear of any Claims, Liens, Interests, encumbrances, executory contracts or unexpired leases of real or personal property . . ." [Confirmation Order p. 21 (Plan Article VI.A)] (emphasis added).

6. On June 21, 2024, the chapter 11 trustee filed a Notice of Successful Bidder, Backup Bidder, and Sale Hearing [Docket No 561], which designated QB Loop Property LP (“QB Loop”), an entity affiliated with Mr. Choudhri, as the successful bidder for the Property and further designated NBK as the “Backup Bidder.”

7. On June 22, 2024, the Court entered a Memorandum Opinion [Docket No. 565] and Order Confirming Chapter 11 Plan of Liquidation of the Debtor by National Bank of Kuwait, S.A.K.P. New York Branch [Docket No. 566] (the “Confirmation Order”), approving a future sale of the Property “free and clear of any Claims, Liens, Interests, encumbrances, executory contracts or unexpired leases of real or personal property . . .” (Plan Article VI.A) (emphasis added).

8. On July 8, 2024, the Court entered its Order (A) Approving Asset Purchase Agreement Between the Trustee and QB Loop Property LP; (B) Approving the Sale of the Property Free and Clear of all Liens, Claims, Encumbrances, and Other Interests; (C) Approving Assumption and Assignment of Executory Contracts and Leases; (D) Determining the amounts necessary to cure such Executory Contracts, and Unexpired Leases; and (E) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 608] (the “Sale Order”), approving the Asset Purchase Agreement submitted by QB Loop and the Stalking Horse Agreement submitted by NBK for a sale of the Property “free and clear of and all interests, including all liens, claims and encumbrances” [Sale Order p. 7 ¶ N, p. 13 ¶ 5] (emphasis added). The Sale Order further required “all persons that are in possession of some or all of the Purchased Assets as of or after the Closing are hereby directed to surrender possession of such Purchased Assets to the Buyer as of the Closing or at such time thereafter as the Buyer may request.” [Sale Order p. 26 ¶ 34].

9. The Sale Order also found that “one or more of the standards set forth in section 363(f)(1) through (5) of the Bankruptcy Code have been satisfied” [Sale Order pp. 7-8]. The Sale

Order also provided that “[e]ach entity with an interest, including any lien, claim, or encumbrance, in the Purchased Assets to be transferred on the Closing Date: (i) has, subject to the terms and conditions of this Sale Order, consented to the Sale Transaction or is deemed to have consented to the extent that they did not object” [Sale Order p. 8]. Notably, Jetall never objected to the Sale Order.

10. QB Loop failed to close on its purchase of the Property, and on August 9, 2024, the chapter 11 trustee filed a Notice of Failure to Close Under Successful Bid [Docket No. 658]. As a result, the rights to purchase the Property went to NBK as the Backup Bidder pursuant to the terms of its Stalking Horse Agreement, with only a change in purchase price [Sale Order p. 24 ¶ 28]. “On or about August 20, 2024, the undersigned chapter 11 trustee in this case sold [the Property] to Houston 2425 Galleria, LLC, as designee and assignee of National Bank of Kuwait, S.A.K.P., for $27 million.” Report of Sale [Docket No. 675]. Thereafter, the Plan went effective on August 21, 2024. Notice of Confirmation and Effective Date of Chapter 11 Plan of Liquidation of the Debtor by National Bank of Kuwait S.A.K.P., New York Branch [Docket No. 676].

11. Shortly after closing, NBK’s Assignee provided notice to Jetall for it to surrender possession and vacate the Property.⁴ Now, three months after the sale closed, Jetall still refuses to leave the Property. In the JP Court, Jetall made a Plea to the Jurisdiction, contending that issues of title exist that prevent the JP Court from exercising jurisdiction over the eviction proceeding. The JP Court dismissed the case “due to lack of jurisdiction.” Thus, NBK, and on behalf of NBK’s Assignee, seeks relief from this Court on an emergency basis.

JURISDICTION

12. The Court has jurisdiction to consider this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334.

⁴ On September 3, 2024 and again on September 9, 2024, NBK served Jetall with notice to vacate the Property.

13. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157.

RELIEF REQUESTED

14. NBK and NBK's Assignee respectfully request entry of an order substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B requiring Jetall to vacate the premises immediately and instructing the U.S. Marshall to remove Jetall if it fails to vacate within five (5) business days of the entry of the proposed order (the proposed "Order to Vacate Property").

BASIS FOR RELIEF

A. The Court Has Authority to Enforce the Sale Order and Evict Jetall

15. The Court should order Jetall to vacate the Property and direct the clerk to issue all writs necessary to evict Jetall if it fails to comply within five (5) business days of entry of an order granting the relief requested in this motion.

16. Section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code provides in relevant part that "[t]he court may issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title." There is abundant authority supporting the proposition that a bankruptcy court has inherent core authority under section 105 to enforce its own orders, including confirmation orders and sale orders.⁵

⁵ See, e.g., Universal Oil Ltd. v. Allfirst Bank (In re Millenium Seacarriers, Inc.), 419 F.3d 83, 97 (2d Cir. 2005) ("Bankruptcy courts retain jurisdiction to enforce and interpret their own orders") (citing *Luan Inv. S.E. v. 17. The Court's core authority to evict a tenant from real property stems from the bankruptcy court's authority to issue writs. See 28 U.S.C. § 1651(a) ("The Supreme Court and all courts established by Act of Congress may issue all writs necessary or appropriate in aid of their respective jurisdictions and agreeable to the usages and principles of law"). "[T]he legislative history of § 105 reflects congressional intent that the section be 'similar in effect to the All Writs Statute, 28 U.S.C. § 1651,' and was included in the Bankruptcy Code 'to cover any powers traditionally exercised by a bankruptcy court that are not encompassed by the All Writs Statute.'" In re Casse, 198 F.3d 327, 336 (2d Cir. 1999) (quoting In re Earl, 140 B.R. 728, 741 n.4 (Bankr. N.D. Ind. 1992)). Thus, the Court has the authority to issue a writ of assistance, the effect of which is to evict a tenant from real property.

18. The Court also has authority to issue a writ authorizing and directing the eviction of Jetall to effectuate the requirements of the Sale Order. See In re Searles, 70 B.R. 266 (D.R.I. 1987). In In re Searles, the district court held that the bankruptcy court had the authority to evict persons from a property that belonged to a creditor pursuant to the terms of a consent order entered by the same court. The district court reasoned that because the consent order was a core proceeding, the subsequent eviction order also fell within the bankruptcy court's subject matter jurisdiction. Numerous bankruptcy courts have similarly entered eviction orders.⁶

specifically, and consistently, held that the bankruptcy court retains jurisdiction, inter alia, to enforce its confirmation order."); In re Allegheny Health Educ. & Rsch. Found., 383 F.3d 169, 176 (3d Cir. 2004) ("we hold that the bankruptcy court correctly determined that the suit was a core proceeding because it required the court to interpret and give effect to its previous sale orders").

19. Where a tenant refuses to vacate, a bankruptcy court may issue writs of assistance from the U.S. Marshals Service. In In re Watson, the district court affirmed the U.S. Bankruptcy Judge Mary F. Walrath's order authorizing eviction assistance from the U.S. Marshal, including use of reasonable force.

The premises considered, and the Court being fully advised, it is hereby ORDERED:

1. The Debtors and all persons claiming by or through or on behalf of the Debtors are hereby ORDERED to immediately vacate the Property and to remove their personal property therefrom forthwith; and
2. LPP shall have all writs necessary to evict the Debtors and all persons claiming by or through or on behalf of the Debtors from the Property, including, without limitation, Writs of Assistance, Ejectment, Eviction, and/or Restitution; and
3. Upon the request of LPP the Clerk shall issue such Writs and the United States Marshal shall render such assistance, including the use of reasonable force, as may be necessary to serve and enforce such Writs and to make return thereof.

In re Watson, No. 09-BK-10002-MFW, 2011 WL 13492392, at *1 (Bankr. D.V.I. May 12, 2011), aff'd, No. 2009-10002, 2016 WL 3349666 (D.V.I. June 15, 2016). Similarly, in In re Saint Vincents, another bankruptcy court called upon the U.S. Marshals Service to enforce a sale order, evict a holdover tenant, and arrest "anyone interfering with the execution of this Writ of Assistance." In re Saint Vincents Catholic Medical Centers of New York, No. 10-11963 (CGM) (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. July 23, 2010), ECF No. 644.

20. Finally, to preempt the necessity of NBK or NBK's Assignee returning to this Court for relief again, and incurring even more legal fees in the process, NBK and NBK's Assignee should be expressly authorized to present an order granting the relief requested herein to the Harris County Sheriff's Office permitting the immediate removal of any Jetall property remaining at the Property, without any further notice to Jetall, without any recourse against NBK or NBK's Assignee, and without any prejudice to any claims or causes of action NBK or NBK's Assignee holds against Jetall, if Jetall fails to do so within five (5) business days of the entry of an order granting NBK and NBK's Assignee's requested relief. All notices and stays under applicable state law, including but not limited to those set forth in TEX. PROP. CODE § 24.0061, should be deemed satisfied or waived, as applicable, to allow for immediate relief to NBK and NBK's Assignee.

B. The Sale Order Is Consistent with Texas Law Regarding Forcible Detainer

21. Under Texas law, the sole focus of a forcible-detainer action is the right to immediate possession of real property.” Shields Ltd. P’ship v. Bradberry, 526 S.W.3d 471, 478 (Tex. 2017). To establish a right to immediate possession, a plaintiff must prove (1) a landlord-tenant relationship exists between the parties,⁷ (2) the tenant is an evictable tenant,⁸ (3) the landlord made a proper demand for possession,⁹ (4) the period of time to vacate has expired,¹⁰ and (5) the tenant has refused to surrender possession to the landlord.¹¹

22. An “evictable tenant” is one who is a tenant or a subtenant willfully holding over after the termination of the tenant’s right of possession. This includes a tenant at will or by sufferance, including an occupant at the time of foreclosure of a lien superior to the tenant’s lease,¹² and by extension, an occupant at the time of a “free and clear” sale, authorized by the Sale Order, to which Jetall neither objected nor appealed.¹³

⁸ It’s the Berrys, Ltd. Liab. Co. v. Edom Corner, Ltd. Liab. Co., 271 S.W.3d 765, 769 (Tex. App.—Amarillo 2008, no pet.).

⁹ TEX. PROP. CODE §§24.002(b), 24.005; see also Briones v. Brazos Bend Villa Apts., 438 S.W.3d 808, 811 (Tex. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 2014, no pet.).

¹⁰ TEX. PROP. CODE § 24.005

¹¹ Briones v. Brazos Bend Villa Apts., 438 S.W.3d 808, 811 (Tex. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 2104, no pet.).

¹² It’s the Berrys, 271 S.W.3d at 769.

¹³ The Supreme Court has foreclosed the possibility of an after-the-fact attack on a confirmed plan by a party that never objected or appealed. United Student Aid Funds, Inc. v. Espinosa, 559 U.S. 260 (2010).

23. Jetall is an evictable tenant because it asserts an ongoing right to possession based upon a lease with the Debtor providing it with rights to occupy the Property. However, the Sale Order conveyed the property “free and clear” of all interests in the Property; directed those “in possession of some or all of the Purchased Assets as of or after the Closing . . . surrender possession” [Sale Order p. 26 ¶ 34]; and prohibited interference “with Buyer’s use and enjoyment of the Purchased Assets” [Sale Order p. 28 ¶ 36].¹⁴

24. Jetall’s continued occupation of the Property after it was sold free of any interest asserted by Jetall in the Property, i.e., its lease, in flagrant violation of the Sale Order, constitutes tenancy at sufferance, which is trespass.¹⁵ Nevertheless, NBK’s Assignee served Jetall with eviction notices, but it refuses to leave the Property. Therefore, neither the Sale Order nor any of the present facts are inconsistent with Texas law, and the Court may order eviction.

REQUEST FOR EMERGENCY CONSIDERATION

25. Pursuant to Local Bankruptcy Rule 9013-1(i), NBK, and on behalf of NBK’s Assignee, respectfully requests that the Motion be considered on an emergency basis. Jetall continues to occupy the Property, without a lease, trespassing, diminishing the value of the Property, and interfering with NBK’s Assignee’s use and enjoyment of the Property, all in violation of the Sale Order. Absent emergency consideration, this Motion may not be heard until late in December, unnecessarily prolonging Jetall’s unlawful occupancy. Accordingly, NBK, and on behalf of NBK’s Assignee, respectfully requests that the Court consider this Motion on an expedited basis.

¹⁴ Again, the Confirmation Order also confirmed that the Property was to be transferred free and clear of “unexpired leases.” [Confirmation Order pp. 2-3 ¶ K; p. 21 (Plan Article VI.A)].

¹⁵ See Coinmach Corp. v. Aspenwood Apartment Corp., 417 S.W.3d 909, 919 (Tex. 2013) (“[U]nder the common law a tenant at sufferance has no legal title or right to possession, and is thus a ‘trespasser’ who possesses the property ‘wrongfully.’”).

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

26. NBK and NBK's Assignee reserve their rights to seek further relief from the Court pursuant to any of its Orders, including relief with respect to attorneys' fees NBK and NBK's Assignee have incurred in connection with Jetall's actions as described herein. NBK and NBK's Assignee further reserve all rights, claims, defenses, and remedies, including, without limitation, the right to amend, modify, or supplement this Motion.

NOTICE

27. Notice of this Motion will be served on any party entitled to notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002 and any other party entitled to notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Local Rule 9013-1(d).

WHEREFORE, NBK and NBK's Assignee respectfully request (a) entry of the proposed Order to Vacate Property granting the relief requested herein and (b) such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Gentlemen,

I've just learned that Marc Hill—who is the only lawyer that represents Jetall—cannot attend tomorrow's hearing because he will be in New Mexico. I only represent 2425 WL. And Mr. Choudhri cannot appear either because he has a hearing in the Austin bankruptcy case at 10:00 am. Would you be willing to agree to a short continuance of the hearing so that we can arrange to have his counsel there?

Please let me know.

Thank you,

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE

HARRIS COUNTY, TEXAS

PRECINCT 1 PLACE 1

AMENDED ORDER OF DISQUALIFICATION

After considering the briefs and authorities cited to the Court, the arguments of counsel, the evidence presented at the October 29, 2024 hearing on Defendant's motion to disqualify (the "Hearing"), and the Motion for Clarification filed by Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman, LLP ("Pillsbury"), the Court makes the following findings:

- 1.) That an attorney-client relationship has existed between the Jackson Walker, LLP, Law Firm and a.) The named Defendant in this suit, and b.) Plaintiff by and through the representation of its current client, Houston 2425 Galleria, LLC.
- 2.) That substantial relationship exists between the matters in the case at bar and cases in which the Jackson Walker, LLP, law firm has represented the named Defendant.
- 3.) That through its attorney-client relationship with the Defendant, Jackson Walker, LLP and its attorneys has received information that intimately relates to the factual issues at bar, which creates a conflict of interest, and which will result in a violation of the Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct.
- 4.) This Court believes, as was stated in the Home Insurance Company v. Marsh case (1990) and Islander East v. Ferguson (1996) that the trust necessary in any attorney-client relationship is destroyed if this client must be concerned that any information, he/it gives the attorney on related issues may reappear later in adversarial proceedings, where his former attorney now represents an opponent. The Court feels that the relationship between the lawyer in those cases creates the possibility that confidential information could inadvertently be used by the law firm and that the appearance of justice would therefore be compromised.

- 5.) There was no allegation by the Defendant in its motion to disqualify, or any evidence adduced at the Hearing, with respect to Pillsbury.

For those reasons, the motion is GRANTED to the extent set forth herein and it is ORDERED that Jackson Walker, LLP and its attorneys are Disqualified to litigate or have any role in the present case, or the representation of any party in this case or the matters and issues relating thereto; and this disqualification does not extend to Pillsbury or any other law firm.

ORDERED that the Court's prior order dated October 29, 2024, disqualifying Jackson Walker, LLP and its attorneys is amended and superseded in its entirety by this amended Order.

RENDERED this _____ day of _____, 2024.
